Join the Royal Greenwich Rock & Pop Rehearsal Project

Where young musicians take the lead

The Rock & Pop Rehearsal Project is a space for small bands to rehearse, collaborate and create music, with young musicians making the key creative decisions – from choosing songs to shaping their sound.

Supported by professional musicians, you will build your performance, songwriting and band skills while making music that's truly your own.

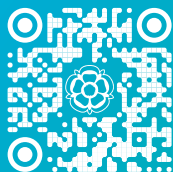

Best suited to players and singers who are experienced, confident and able to work independently. Enthusiasm, teamwork, and commitment are key!
