

Weekly Newsletter 18th November 2022

HORN PARK
PRIMARY SCHOOL

Dear Parents and Carers,

It has been another busy, rainy week with lots of fantastic learning going on around the school. We were really pleased to invite parents into school to learn more about how we teach phonics and how children can best be supported at home with their reading. It was also great to see parents come into school to find out more about 'No Outsiders' which is a fantastic project we have been engaging with as part of our RHE curriculum. If you would like to find out more and were unable to attend the workshop, please speak to the office about arranging a meeting with Miss Osborne or Mrs Wood.

Alternatively, you can also find out more here.

As mentioned in last week's newsletter, we are excited to announce that on Monday 21st November at 3:45pm, Horn Park Forest School will feature on CBeebies, Teeny Tiny Creatures searching for the Devils Coach Horse Beetle. Click here to find out more.

Following this year's successful anti bullying week, which focused on the theme 'reach out', Miss Waite will be holding an anti-bullying parent workshop which will explore the definition of bullying, various 'roles' that can be taken in the instance of bullying and what is in place at school to support anti-bullying. The workshop will take place on Thursday 24th November at 9am.

Following this, Miss Waite and Miss Hughes would like to establish an anti-bullying steering group who will meet regularly to review anti-bullying in our school and improve on what is already taking place. Further details on this steering group will be given during the parent workshop. If you are unable to attend the workshop, but would still like to be involved, please speak to Miss Waite.

Have a lovely weekend

BOOK RECOMMENDATION

Maples have enjoyed reading 'Mr Wolf Pancakes' by Jan Fearnley. Mr Wolf fancies some tasty pancakes but he doesn't know how to make them! Asking his neighbours is of no use they're a mean and horrible lot who refuse to help. Poor Mr Wolf! He has to work it out all by himself. But what happens when those nasty neighbours want to help Mr Wolf eat his delicious pancakes. A brilliantly funny twist on well-loved fairytale classics
