HORN PARK
PRIMARY SCHOOL

Dear Parents and Carers,

We are always so proud of the values the children at Horn Park demonstrate, and this week has been no exception leading into our half term break.

On Thursday, our year 5 and 6 boys football team took part in a tournament run by Charlton Athletic. The children showed fantastic perseverance against tough opponents and consistently displayed respect and sportsmanship towards all the other teams. The boys' positivity was described as 'contagious.'

After our digital leaders led a whole school assembly last Friday, all classes celebrated 'Safer Internet Day' on Tuesday. The purpose of this is to promote the safe and positive use of digital technology for children and young people and inspire a national conversation. On Tuesday 28th February at 9am, we will be running a parent workshop based on online safety.

We are really excited to be celebrating World Book Day on the first Friday of next half term (24th February). A letter was sent out earlier this week with more details about the day itself, events going on throughout the week, book tokens and a costume swap.

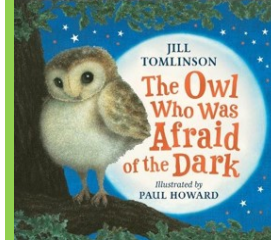

After half term, we will be recruiting a new parent governor. This is due to Helen Quinnell stepping down from her position. We thank her for the valuable support she has given the school. If you are interested in the role of parent governor, please see the letter that has been emailed. Please don't hesitate to contact the school office if you have any questions or would like to collect a nomination pack.

Have a lovely weekend and a great half term break,

Zoe Crosland and Jack Green

BOOK RECOMMENDATION

Millenniums book recommendation this week is 'The Owl who was afraid of the dark.' By Jill Tomlinson

We have really enjoyed learning about this story in our literacy sessions and the story has taught us to be more confident and resilient. Plop is a baby owl who is afraid of the dark and his mother sends him out to talk to different people about what they think about the dark. He meets lots of people who tell him that Dark is fun, Dark is kind and so on, until he finally learns to like the dark and enjoy being
