

Dear parents and carers,

We hope you all had a wonderful summer break. It has been fantastic to welcome back all the children this week. We are always so proud of how they settle into the routine of the school day and the high expectations that all adults have of them.

We are very much looking forward to the curriculum providing them with brilliant learning opportunities across the academic year. Class newsletters will be sent next week giving further information about this, and all parents and carers have the chance to come into school next week for 'meet the teacher' sessions.

All year groups have been immersing themselves in our school-wide project, 'The Tempest.' This is a classic William Shakespeare text that has been well adapted for children. It is an exciting project that all of the schools across our trust are undertaking. In the very near future, all children will have an opportunity to see a performance of 'The Tempest,' either in the theatre or through a production company in school.

Coming up next week (Wednesday 13th September at 9am) is our first parent workshop of the year: supporting your child with routines at home. A letter sent home earlier in the week reinforced the importance of good attendance habits, and maintaining consistent routines is crucial for this.

We are pleased to announce that Mrs Bissett has been appointed as our Family Support Worker. You'll be hearing more over the coming weeks about workshops and sessions that will be available.

As you may well be aware, Miss Osborne is leaving us for a short while to go and have a baby. We wish her a happy maternity leave and look forward to hearing all about her new arrival.

As we begin the year, please ensure that all children are wearing the correct uniform, including black shoes. More information about uniform can be found on our website.

Thank you to everyone who has emailed their Extreme Reading photos, please continue to send them into
